"Mark has been helping me on a variety of real estate questions - buying, selling and renting. He has been a very knowledgeable person who not only understands the subject matter at hand but also manages to explain it well in laymen's terms. On a personal note, he is pleasant and reliable"

— Olaf Gueldner, was Mark's client

"It was a difficult and protracted business in securing an extension on the lease to a flat at Semley House in London. Although the Landlord and their representatives proved to be extremely difficult during the negotiations, Mark Vinall was patient and understanding of my frustrations at each point and explained the potential ramifications of their actions and how they could possibly impact on the final cost etc. At each stage Mark kept me fully advised of the circumstances."

— Silvano R., was Mark's client

"Mark Vinall's attention to detail and no compromise approach, guarantees that you as a client, can sleep at night knowing that he has protected your interest."

— Roge C., was Mark's client

"I got in touch with Mark when I was looking for advice about proceeding with a lease extension on my flat: a specialist niche of property law. He was generous with his time, prompt with responses and patient when answering my questions. I valued his calm persistence when navigating the both process itself and a truculent landlord; then, later, through to selling the property. I wouldn't hesitate to use his services again or recommend them to another. He was a good person to have on side through a stressful episode."

— Aimee Tobin, was Mark's client

"I initially employed Mark to help me with a leasehold extension on my property. He proved to be very knowledgeable and thorough and was always quick to respond. He also showed tenacity and the quickness of mind to fight a difficult landlord and the end result was higher than my expectations as we secured the extended lease for a lower than expected price. I am now using Mark's services again and would highly recommend him."

— kate P., was Mark's client

— Rebecca Anderton-Davies, was Mark's client

"I would recommend Mark to anyone wanting a highly competent solicitor to act for them . Working with Mark you are really in safe hands. Extremely meticulous to details, patient with his clients, It is always a pleasure dealing with him"

— ola gadallah, was Mark's client

"Mark was solicitor for both the purchase and subsequent sale of one of our London properties. Mark was at his previous employer when I purchased and at his existing firm when I sold quite recently. Mark is an excellent solicitor, and I can not recommend him and his team highly enough. If Mark was in a meeting or away from the office, his secretary would do the utmost to help and pull in other team members as necessary to get the job done as was the case for the final stages of my apartment sale. The quality of advice and attention to detail, combined with the feeling that your transaction is every bit as important to them as it is to you, help make you feel in very safe hands at what can be a stressful time."

— Lorraine Gallagher, was Mark's client

"I found Mark to be incredibly efficient. Nothing was too much trouble. I would not hesitate to recommend him."

— Eileen Neville, was Mark's client

"Marked has worked as a solicitor for my 3 business lease purchases, plus one extension, as well as for private property purchase. I have known Mark for 6 years. Mark has always done an excellent job. He is extremely organized and reliable. With Mark on case I always have a peace of mind. I would definitely recommend Mark."

— Gita Petkevica, was Mark's client

"Mark was a pleasure to work with - responding quickly to any queries and always available by phone."

— Antonia Thorp, Associate, Knight Frank, was with another company when working with Mark at Winckworth Sherwood

"Having had Mark's experience on every move I have made it really has made going through the lengthy legal process a great deal easier. Mark and his team are always personable, reliable and consistent in carrying out the process. I could highly recommend using Mark and his team."

— Tara Nicoll, was Mark's client

"Mark was recommended to me by a professional contact and acted as my solicitor for a lease extension on one of my flats. I have nothing but praise for his work, he gave me a great deal of confidence from our very first meeting and I found him and his staff to be highly professional, reliable, personable and a pleasure to deal with. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Mark and will definitely be using his services again."

— Mike Maher, was Mark's client

"In my experience it is rare to have found such an efficient and proactive solicitor involved in the conveyancing process. A pleasure to deal with, good communication at all times and a brilliant attitude. I hope that I have the pleasure of working with Mark again."

— Amanda Benzecry, Estate Agent, Warren, was with another company when working with Mark at Winckworth Sherwood

"I worked with Mark on a recent property transaction and found him to be a thoroughly efficient and effective solicitor. Issues were dealt with in a timely manner and his communication throughout the deal was excellent. I would be delighted to recommend Mark to anyone wanting a highly competent solicitor to act for them on their sale or purchase of a property."

— Edward McCulloch, Assistant Manager, John D Wood & Co, was with another company when working with Mark at Winckworth Sherwood

"Mark is meticulous, provides prompt and clear advice and we were confident that he was on top of all significant issues. He is very personable and accessible and we would highly recommend him. Friends of ours have used his services as well and think very highly of him."

— Nicole Johnston, was Mark's client

"Mark worked for me on a lease extension. He managed the job well as the other parties in the negotiations were very slow. Mark kept us up to date of the various stages and offered advice on how to go forward. I'll be using him again."

— John Leighton, was Mark's client

"We have used Mark for the sale of our flat and also the lease extension of it last year. Very precise and always trying to get the best result for you, the client. Happily recommend him to others and we will continue to use him for years to come."

— Hugh Sturgis, was Mark's client

"Mark was our solicitor when buying our house recently. He provided an excellent service, was very thorough and totally in the detail. He was persistent with the seller's solicitor and obtained additional information beyond the requirements, to ensure that we knew what we were buying. As this was our first home, Mark was very patient with our enquiries, explained the process and provided excellent support to us. We trusted his advice, implicitly and therefore made the buying process less stressful. We would definitely use him again and have passed on his details to friends who are looking to buy."

— Jessica Macqueen, was Mark's client

"Mark has been great, as well as being an expert he has great attention to detail. The best thing about working with Mark is you know you are in safe hands, he is reliable and trustworthy and that's a rare quality. I have recommended him to my friends as the only person you should have represent you."

— Gurmej Bahia, was Mark's client

"I was introduced to Mark through a mutual client and we have enjoyed an excellent working relationship very since. Mark is very easy to speak to, he has a great deal of knowledge and the experience to back this up. These things wrapped up together to make dealing with him a pleasure We hope to continue to work together for many years to come."

— Chris Baker, was Mark's client

"Mark advised me on the sale of my flat in central London. The sale exchanged and completed within 4 weeks and Mark did very well to drive the very tight timetable. He was responsive, knowledgeable and an excellent lawyer. Highly recommended."

— Monica Sah, was Mark's client

"Mark handled the conveyancing work and chasing of details from very difficult vendors/solicitors and agents with tact, efficiency and care for the results. He made a very stressful situation calm, and organised while pushing for the result we wanted. A delight to have him working on ones behalf."

— Bundy Walker, was Mark's client

— carl faker, was Mark's client

"I have found Mark very personable, to have great knowledge and to be extremely organised and professional. I would not hesitate to recommend him. Richard Page"

— Richard Page, was Mark's client

"Mark provides a first rate client facing service which marries legal expertise with real support. Anybody considering their options by way of legal provision should pick up the telephone to have a no commitment initial conversation as we did."

— Marianne Rance, was Mark's client

"Mark is very reassuring to deal with. He has obvious expertise in his area of work and is very trustworthy. Both important when you are not a lawyer and don't know what questions to ask. I recommend him highly."

— Jill Telford, was Mark's client

"I was grateful for Mark's attention to detail and his prompt response on difficult queries. He took the time to probe into every possible detail and made the other attorney's side work really hard. There was not one issue that was left in question. Every aspect of our home purchase was formatted and well presented so that we often referred to Mark's documents if there was any question from our architect and builders. Throughout the whole process we felt protected and assured of our home purchase, thank you again Mark."

— Dominique Audin, was Mark's client

"Switched to work with Mark from my previous solicitors. What a difference! A very thorough and well executed job to negotiate a lease extension for my property. Thanks, Mark!"

— Alexei Subbotsky, was Mark's client

"Mark carried out the Legal work related to the Enfranchisement of my property. Mark was extremely knowledgeable in dealing with the legal issues in this area. He was very persistent in dealing with any 'difficult' issues and dealt with the whole process very swiftly. He also managed to negotiate reduced legal fees with the other party which I much appreciated. He is also an extremely nice person. I would be more than happy to recommend him to others and would definitely look to use him again in the future."

— Sue Clark, was Mark's client

"I would definitely recommend Mark to anyone. His work was great and he has a full knowledge of the subject. I will definitely contact him again for my next property!"

— Nadia Bucci, CAIA, was Mark's client

"Mark provides clear, practical advice that is timely & considered. He is both good at spotting issues with a proposal, and at coming up with sensible suggestions on how to resolve the issues/ get to the desired result. He is also very well versed in the ins and outs of property law, and practically very experienced on the London market. I would recommend him to anyone wanting to buy or sell a house."

— Tory Frame, was Mark's client

"I've worked with Mark a number of times since 2005 and his work is always to the highest standard with a commercial and personal approach. He single handedly made sure my last deal completed on Christmas Eve when all other professionals were conspiring to make sure it didn't happen!"

— Chris Howard, was Mark's client

"Mark was on the ball and results orientated. He clearly is knowledgeable in this area of law."

— NANCY MALONE, was Mark's client

"MARK HELPED ME WITH THE SALE OF MY CHELSEA FLAT AND EVEN THOUGH I WAS OUT OF THE COUNTRY AND NOT IN THE BEST OF HEALTH, IT WAS A COMPLETELY TROUBLE FREE QUICK AND ACURATE JOB, I WOULD NOT HESITATE TO USE HIM AGAIN , OR RECOMEND HIM IN THE FUTURE. SINCERELY MARILYN HOULIHAN"

— Marilyn Houlihan, was Mark's client

"Mark Vinall is a fantastic, reliable, friendly, efficient, thorough, unegotistical, solicitor. My advice is to use him!"

— Nell chandler, was Mark's client

"Mark carried out legal work on a Lease Extension on my property. We were very impressed with the speedy conclusion of the whole process. Mark was always available to deal with any questions, and we were kept informed of progress on a regular basis. We would be happy to recommend the services of Mark and his company."

— joe taylor, was Mark's client

"Mark's knowledge of the law when it comes to lease extensions has been paramount in getting a good result; he was an excellent guide in an area of which I have no knowledge, patiently answering my questions and explaining the legal process to me. He was also good at keeping track of the project and ensuring the other solicitors did their job correctly."

— Briony Watson, was Mark's client

"Mark has worked as my solicitor on a number of occasions dealing with properties issues that have been less than straight forward. He is expert, approachable and talks through issues in a manner that makes them understandable. I particularly value his appreciation of operating in a timely fashion and his 'can do' attitude. This in my experience, is a rare quality in the legal profession. I can not recommend Mark highly enough."

— Sarah Perrott, was Mark's client

"Mark Vinall worked for me as a solicitor twice so far, when I bought a house and sold one flat. I was very satisfied with his work. He advised me perfectly, was very efficient and quick in dealing with questions and problems, so he kept my costs as low as possible. I was very impressed with his work and he is a very nice person too. I can highly recommend him and I will use him again when I need a solicitor."

— Eric Pfennig, was Mark's client

"Mark was instrumental in securing the purchase of my house, and demonstrated professionalism and unbiased advice at all stages of the transaction."

— Katharine Jenner, was Mark's client

"I hired Mark to deal with lease extension and subsequent sale of the flat. The existing lease and management of the block was complete mess, Mark helped enormously to sort it out. A year without any reminders he is still chasing minor loose ends."

— Peter Sobieszczuk, was Mark's client

"Mark acted as my solicitor for a problematic lease extension. Both he and his team demonstrated a high level of diligence throughout the extension process. All round I was very pleased with the service received and appreciated Mark's clear and succinct approach to the whole process."

— Tim Kennett, was Mark's client

"My new lease purchase was a difficult thing to finalise and Mark kept on at it, so I would add dogged determination to his list of attributes! I was very pleased with his level of service in general."

— David Crickmore, was Mark's client

"Mark has worked on both my last two property sales/purchases, as well as a lease extension. His knowledge of property law has proven to be invaluable to my wife and I, and we always know that our hands are being held from the beginning to the end of the process, ensuring all bases are covered, and all issues simply explained to us (without legal jargon!). I would have no hesitation in recommending Mark to others, and will certainly use him again when we come to move next!"

— Rupert Bean, was Mark's client

"As our solicitor Mark did an excellent job. He is extremely organized and reliable. We live abroad and he kept us well informed about our business quite daily. He accomplished his task with great initiative and with a very positive attitude."

— Mario Justo Lopez, was Mark's client

"Great service and always very detailed work. I have used Mark for several property purchases and always managed to provide extremely valuable advise in very complex trades."

— Christian Duncan CAIA, was Mark's client

— Georgina Cuppidge, was Mark's client

"Mark helped me purchase the leasehold on my property. He is reliable, returns your calls promptly (sounds silly - but that's important!) and I absolutely trust that he has looks at all future possibilities, and done the job properly."

— Maggie Walsh, was Mark's client

"Mark is able to handle the most challenging of tasks. He is dedicated to his profession and possesses a tremendous understanding of law."

— Cindy Fuller, was Mark's client

"I first used Mark for conveyance work way back in Summer 1996 when he helped me buy my flat in Southfields, London. Since then we have maintained a good personal, working relationship and continued to use his services for all things concerning property, such as lease extensions, dealing with several buyers of the flat above over the years, and a lot of the legal advice necessary for landlords to operate successfully. He recently managed the sale of the same flat efficiently and I would thoroughly recommend his services to anyone. His affable and approachable manner ensures it is a pleasure to do business with him."

— Richard Fullerton, was Mark's client

"Mark has acted for me on a lease extension (successful) and two (abortive) house purchase attempts. In all cases, Mark impressed me by being exceptionally responsive, efficient and reassuring at times of stress. Highly recommended!"

— Christian Digby-Firth, was Mark's client

"Mark achieved a quick, great value and hassle free solution to my flat lease extension issue. The level of service provided on this engagement led me to go back to Mark when looking for conveyancing services related to the sale of my flat."

— Ian West, was Mark's client

"We were very happy with the work Mark and his colleagues did on our lease extension and we would use him and his firm again."

— Shani Beadle, was Mark's client

"I have used a number of solicitors over the years all of whom have been good but Mark Vinall stands head and shoulders above them for efficiency and speedy results."

— BRIAN GILL, was Mark's client

"Mark handled my first flat purchase (leasehold) and subsequent lease extension with aplomb, and at a very reasonable rate. I had no hesitation in making him my only port of call to purchase our house where again we had a very good, personable service. Recommended."

— John Fooks, was Mark's client

"I have used Mark for a lease extension, he was very knowledgeable and helpful in an area that is fraught with confusing legislation."

— Alex Whitson, was Mark's client

"I have used Mark more than once for my flat purchase and he has always provided me with a spotless service. Despite I never managed to buy a flat (due to insecure sellers!) Mark has been an excellent partner. Being Italian it was difficult for me to comprehend the English property law - Mark has always been mindful of this and ensured my understanding of matters was fully correct. I would recommend Mark as not only he is reliable and trustworthy but most importantly, he is competent and professional."

— Francesca Magliulo, was Mark's client

"I have used Mark for a lease extension and a house purchase. In both matters he was knowledgeable, efficient and a pleasure to work with. I would have no hesitation in recommending Mark."

— Louise Burns, was Mark's client

"I have used Mark twice now, once for a house purchase and once for a lease extension. Both times he has provided me with an excellent service. Not only is he good at discovering and raising issues to my attention, but he is also adept at finding suitable resolutions. On both occasions Mark has exceeded my expectations and I am thoroughly happy to recommend him. I wouldn't use anyone else."

— Brynne Parker, was Mark's client

"I dread moving home. But fortunately, in Mark, I can always rely on a rare breed of solicitor - professional, utterly dependable and a really good guy."

— Dom Raab, was Mark's client

"We have used Mark on several occasions relating to the purchase of property in London and lease extensions. Some of these have been very lengthy and complicated We have always found him to be very thorough, easy to contact and communicate with. He has found pitfalls and come up with solutions and I feel he always puts our interests as his clients first. I would feel very happy to recommend him and will indeed use him again."

— Corrina Harper, was Mark's client

"Mark was employed initially to advise with a difficult purchase of a freehold by limited company set up by flat owners of which I was a director. Mark gave sound advice and was good value for money. I then used Mark in the sale of a flat where Mark was, again, efficient, effective (during difficult sections of the process) and, I think, didn't seek to overwork or overcharge during the draw out process. I was pleased and would definitely recommend Mark. William (Bill) Hargreaves"

— William Hargreaves, was Mark's client

"Mark is an exceptional property focussed solicitor and has represented my personal and companies interests since 2001; he has undertaken multiple deals in this time and has always delivered the highest quality of work often to very tight deadlines."

— Brian Clancy, was Mark's client

"We have used Mark for six different house conveyances. Every one has been conducted speedily, effectively and with true professionalism. When the inevitably difficulties arise Mark has steered as through protecting our interests. On one occasion we bought a flat in a new development with rather complex arrangements. 17 buyer's solicitors had arranged purchases before ours. Mark found pitfalls which the others had missed and he developed effective safeguards. The seller's solicitors said that they found Mark to be the most thorough! He is friendly and personable and will always be our first port of call if we want to buy or sell a house."

— Alan Costley, was Mark's client

"I have known Mark Vinall for six years now, and during this time he has provided excellent residential conveyancing services for a number of purchases and sales made. Mark has been exceptionally professional, efficient and reliable. He is always prepared to go the extra mile, and I know I can trust him to deliver the results. He really looks after the needs of his clients, and has their best interests in mind. He is also very approachable, enthusiastic and dedicated to his work. I would have no hesitation in recommending Mark – it is indeed a great pleasure to work with him!"

— Barbara Lynn, was Mark's client

"Mark is the sort of property lawyer that everyone wishes they had. He is extremely effective at what he does, very practical and always approachable. His rates are reasonable for the high quality of service he provides. Over the years (including at his previous firm) he has helped us on three residential sales, three residential purchases and one lease extension and I have no hesitation in recommending him."
